

Jim McKee D.D.S.

Jim McKee has been in private practice since 1984 in Downers Grove, Illinois. He practices with his wife, Lisa McKee, DDS whose practice is limited to orthodontic treatment. Jim has lectured throughout the United States as well as in Asia, Europe and Canada on both the managerial skills and the clinical concepts necessary to implement the principles of complete dentistry. His lectures interests include coordinating the new patient examination for increased case acceptance, diagnosing the condition of the TM joint, and developing a systemized approach to obtain predictable results with both the structurally intact TM joint as well as the damaged TM joint. His research areas are the repeatability of centric relation as a condylar position and centric relation as a physiologic condylar position with published studies in the Journal of Prosthetic Dentistry.

Jim is a member of the American Dental Association, The Illinois State Dental Society and a past-president of the West Suburban Branch of the Chicago Dental Society. Jim is the founder of the Dawson-Pankey Study Club of DuPage County started in 1991 and has worked with many dentists to start study clubs throughout North America. He is a past-president of the American Equilibration Society as well as the president of the Dawson Academy Alumni Association, Additionally; Jim is a member of the American Academy of Restorative Dentistry, the American Academy of Cosmetic Dentistry and the Academy of General Dentistry.